

Webinars, August – December 2022

Genocide Warning: India

Tuesday, August 23, 2022, 7:00-9:00 pm CT

The speakers discuss the persecution of Muslims in India by the current BJP government and its supporters. Human rights leaders warn that genocide is imminent, yet incitement and violence continue.

- Safa Ahmed, Media Associate, Indian American Muslim Council
- Nikhil Mandalaparthi, Deputy Executive Director, Hindus for Human Rights

Reservations by August 22 at www.worldwithoutgenocide.org/india

Transnational Repression of the Uyghurs – Nowhere is Safe

Thursday, September 15, 2022, 7:00-9:00 pm CT

The speakers discuss the global problem of transnational repression, intimidation, and violence and the targeting of Uyghurs in the US.

- Kaori Kenmotsu, J.D., Senior Lecturer, Hamline University
- Harold Melcher, J.D., Legal Resident, League of Minnesota Cities
- Tara Kalar, J.D., Adjunct Professor, Mitchell Hamline School of Law
- Dragana Glumac, Analyst, FBI

Reservations by September 14 at www.worldwithoutgenocide.org/transnational

Felons, Transgender People, and Others: Disenfranchisement and Civil Death in the United States

Tuesday, October 11, 7:00-9:00 pm CT

The US is condemned internationally for the disenfranchisement of felons, transgender people, and other groups and their exclusion from political life.

- Tara Kalar, J.D., Adjunct Professor, Mitchell Hamline School of Law
- Colleen Feige, President, League of Women Voters – Edina
- Ellen J. Kennedy, Ph.D., Executive Director, World Without Genocide

Reservations by October 10 at www.worldwithoutgenocide.org/disenfranchisement

Last Train to Auschwitz

Wednesday, November 2, 7:00-9:00 pm CT

76,000 Jews from France were deported by train to Nazi extermination camps.

- Dr. Sarah Federman, author of Last Train to Auschwitz, will speak about the culpability of the French railway company and legal justice for victims and their descendants.

Reservations by November 1 at www.worldwithoutgenocide.org/lasttrain

Journalists at Risk Globally and in the War in Ukraine

Thursday, December 8, 7:00-9:00 pm CT

Journalists face increasing danger in reporting the truth. They are harassed, attacked, imprisoned, and murdered.

The Committee to Protect Journalists safeguards reporters globally from harm.

Kerry Paterson, Deputy Emergency Director of the Committee to Protect Journalists, will speak about their work around the world and in today's war in Ukraine.

- Kerry Paterson, Deputy Emergency Director, Committee to Protect Journalists
- Panel, reporters and journalists

Reservations by December 7 at www.worldwithoutgenocide.org/journalists

Webinars are open to the public: $10 general public, $5 students and seniors, $25 for Minnesota lawyers seeking CLE 'elimination of bias' credits; free for Mitchell Hamline students. 'Clock hours' for Minnesota teachers, nurses, and social workers. These are 'live' webinars; recordings are not available.

More information: admin@worldwithoutgenocide.org 952-693-5206

Webinar Co-Sponsors: Anti-Defamation League, Midwest Chapter; CHAIM - Children of Holocaust Survivors Association in Minnesota; CGS – MN, Citizens for Global Solutions; Congregation Shir Tikvah; Lutheran Church of the Redeemer; Minnesota Chapter, Federal Bar Association; Minnesota Council of Churches; Minnesota Justice Foundation; Minnesota Nurses Association; Mitchell Hamline School of Law; Mt. Zion Temple; and the United Nations Association of Minnesota.

Additional co-sponsors:

August 23: Indian American Muslim Council; Hindus for Human Rights